Re: House 7281 – An Act Relating To Insurance – Examinations

Dear Mr. Chairman:

This statement in support of House 7281 is submitted by the American Property Casualty Insurance Association (APCIA).¹ House 7281 is based on the NAIC Cyber Model and APCIA has supported similar legislation for the past several sessions.

Very truly yours,

Vice President, State Gov't. Relations

¹ Representing 65% of the U.S. property casualty insurance market, APCIA promotes and protects the viability of private competition for the benefit of consumers and insurers. APCIA represents the broadest cross-section of home, auto, and business insurers of any national trade association. APCIA members represent all sizes, structures, and regions, which protect families, communities, and businesses in the U.S. and across the globe. Several APCIA members are located in Rhode Island and many more do business here. Together, APCIA members write almost 72% of the property and casualty insurance sold in the state.
