Subject: Urgent Appeal to Uphold Your Constitutional Oaths

Dear Members of the House Judiciary Committee,

As a concerned citizen deeply committed to our constitutional principles, I write to you with a sense of urgency. As members of the House Judiciary Committee, I implore you to uphold your solemn oath to the Constitution and carefully consider the impact of these proposals, if passed, on our fundamental rights and values.

Legislation should align with the principles enshrined in our Constitution, fostering a society that respects individual liberties and promotes the well-being of all citizens. Bills 7217, 7268, 7269, 7373, 7751, 7827, 7828, and 7829, do not align with such principles and raise significant concerns. I implore you to reject them—especially bills 7217 and 7373, which are particularly egregious.

Furthermore, I strongly support common-sense legislation like 7270, 7374 and 7752. These bills not only embody the principles of fairness, justice, and public welfare. Our legislative efforts must focus on solutions that benefit the greater good while safeguarding our constitutional rights.

I appreciate the time and dedication you commit to serving our state. However, I respectfully ask you to champion legislation that upholds the principles of our Constitution, and stands as a testament to our commitment to a just and equitable society.

Sincerely,
Christopher Welch
