Dear Lawmaker's,

As a fellow resident of Rhode Island, I strongly urge you to vote NO on S.2202 and H.7373, the mandatory storage bills.

These bills would only tip the scales towards home invaders when seconds are of the utmost importance. These are dangerous bills for citizens who only seek to defend themselves against a criminal attack. Firearms safety is a matter of personal responsibility as everyone has different circumstances. This one-size-fits-all overreach is an intrusion into a person's home and will do nothing to improve public safety.

These bills will do nothing but create more innocent victims. This is a clear violation of the right to self-defense in one's home.

I strongly urge you to vote NO on S.2202 and H.7373, the mandatory storage bills.

Thank you for all that you do for our state.

Sincerely,

James Stead Jr.
