To all concerned:

My name is Charles Selima and I have resided in Woonsocket for the past 41 years. I'm writing you today to urge you to vote against the Assisted Suicide bill that will come up tomorrow.

I have watched for over fifty years now the diminution of the value people place on life and how we've come to resemble the barbaric societies of times past. Please do not allow a further decline in the sanctity of life come tomorrow.

Yours sincerely,

Charles Selima
