To House Committee on Judiciary,

My name is Jason Romblad, an unaffiliated voter from Woonsocket.

I am providing my testimony today in opposition to bill H5103. I do not agree with prohibiting landlords from inquiring about an applicant's prior incarceration. I also don't agree with the language of claiming that landlords are discriminating by asking these questions. There are many being released from prison who are still a danger to the community. Landlords should be able to know this information and utilize it in their decision making upon offering tenancy to any person.

Thank You.
