I've tried a number of ways and a few times to send testimony.
This email is in opposition to H5436 {lc1186/1}?

The generic term assault weapon is very vague !
I'd like to see our laws we have in place upheld. We need to follow the constitution where it says shall not be infringed!

Of the nearly 190 countries in the world. We are in the top 10 for gun death and violence. If you removed the five worst cities in the country we're ranked near 170 or the safest place on earth.
It's no coincidence those are cities with strong gun laws Keeping citizens from defending themselves. Those places all have that in common . Poor at allowing the common man from defend himself . Enabling criminals to run rampant .

If you want to make common sense law at least be able to speak to what arms you oppose . Assault weapons is a vague definition with nonsensical terms.

If guns kill ppl
pens misspelled words
Forks cause obesity

And cars break the speed limit

P.S.

I was a gaurd on a nuclear capable ship
(I neither confirm or deny the presence of nuclear weapons)
Held a secret clearance but as a civilian soon after discharge was called a punk who wanted a gun , by a detective . He asked if I was mad at someone? I just wanted to follow the law and get a permit
