

I wholeheartedly endorse bill H7382. This legislation lowers the existing rental constraints, addressing the pressing housing needs of URI students, a tradition upheld for decades.

As a parent of a URI student, securing off-campus housing is imperative. Yet, the restriction of housing in Narraganset to accommodate only three occupants severely restricts options. This limitation not only diminishes the available housing compared to the number of students seeking accommodation but also substantially inflates housing expenses, consequently narrowing the demographic of students able to afford housing.

Sincerely,

Nellie
