APPENDIXINVOCATION*REPRESENTATIVE BRIAN PATRICK KENNEDY

Dear Lord, we thank you for giving us the wisdom as government representatives to work for our constituents. Grant us the courage to do what is right, even in the face of adversity.

As we watch the developments around the world, we pray for peace in southeast Asia and for the people of Taiwan. While we celebrate Taiwan today, we pray for those who were injured and those who lost their lives from the earthquake that struck the Republic of China (Taiwan) last week. We hope that Rhode Island and Taiwan will continue to expand our friendship, which is based on the common values of freedom, democracy and the rule of law and that our bilateral commerce activities will flourish with new trade opportunities that will grow our economies in the years ahead.

AMEN
